Jacksonville Improving.

As an evidence of the spirit of improvement in our town, we would mention that there are some four or five handsome and comfortable dwelling houses in process of erection—an Iron Foundry has been built, and is now in operation, by Messrs. Crow & Miller—Messrs. Wyle & Turnley have commenced the manufacture of the celebrated Uley Patent Plows, on a scale to supply all demands—and we believe Messrs. Carroll and J. D. Hammond are having the Grand Prairie Washing Machines, said to be the best ever brought to this country, made up here in neat and durable style. These are but beginnings. Jacksonville is certainly one of the most eligible points in the State for the purpose, and is certainly destined to be a manufacturing place of considerable importance.

Our Dry Goods and Grocery Merchants are well supplied with well selected stocks, and can make it a saving of both time and money for the people in the surrounding country to trade with them.

HOTEL CHANGE.—Messrs. Alexander & Son have taken the Brick Hotel recently occupied by S. D. McClellan, Esq.—These gentlemen have the business qualifications, and all the necessary means for a first class Hotel. They are enterprising and ambitious to excel, and it is not too much to predict that they will keep a first class Hotel, which will be a credit to our Town, give universal satisfaction to their patrons, and be equal in every respect to any in the interior of the State.

The special attention of consumers and dealers in Hardware, Iron, Nails, &c. is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. Bones, Brown & Co. of Augusta, Ga., and J. & S. Bones & Co. of Rome, Ga. These firms are composed of gentlemen of ability, integrity, experience, and are unsurpassed in all the essential qualifications that go to make up the character of first class business men.

The house in Augusta, of which the Rome is a branch, has been established over forty years.

All their English Goods are of direct importation, and it needs only a trial to convince Merchants in this section, that they can save both time and money by buying of them.

A convenient new dwelling house and lot containing three acres, about one fourth of a mile from the court house on the Rome road, is now offered for sale on good terms. The house is new, contains 5 rooms, convenient out houses, a good well in the yard, fruit trees, &c. For further information enquire at this office.

Nov. Valuable and Useful Implements.—Farmers in this section, who may wish to increase their products by the use of improved implements, will be pleased to learn by the advertisement of Messrs. Wyle & Turnley, that they are now prepared to furnish Uley Patent Plows in any number. The plow, as a matter of course, is the foundation of all agricultural improvement. This is one of the very latest improvements, in fact is believed to combine the advantages of all. We heartily wish our enterprising businessmen success in their useful enterprise, which will be more advantageous to the farmers than themselves.

Two men, Charles Morrison, of Floyd Co. and John Appleton of Resaca, were killed instantly on the Rome Fair Ground, on Thursday evening, by the falling of one of the poles used in raising the fallow.

Capt. W. F. Bush has sent to our office a specimen of the Texas Burr, which is said to be an excellent fertilizer of land. From their looks we should say they would be ugly customers on a man's clothes, but that inconvenience could be very well tolerated, in consideration of the much needed improvement of land.

Latest News.

THE SNOW STORM.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Advises from central Wisconsin state that the thermometer has stood at 32 degrees all day—the coldest day for the season in 15 years. The storm has been quite general at the North.

FROM FORT WAYNE.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 26.—From about midnight last night until six o'clock this morning, about twelve inches of snow fell in Northwestern Indiana. The oldest inhabitants cannot remember a snow of such depth in this section. Considerable damage to telegraph lines and fruit trees was done by it. To night the snow is nearly all gone. The weather is cold.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Oct. 28.—There are ugly rumors of a heavy pressure for further postponement of elections in Mississippi and Texas.

FROM CINCINNATI.

Cincinnati, Oct. 28.—Pardollon was appointed President of the Kentucky and Central Railroad. A brilliant success, with a rumbling sound and a splashing smoke, passed over Dayton. At the same time an enormous meteor passed over Forest Station, eastward, resembling a brilliant headlight, with a shooting star, which shot houses, broke windows, and awakened the people. There were three heavy explosions.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

St. Louis, Oct. 28.—Private dispatches say the steamer Stonewall was burned to day forty miles above Cairo. Of the crew and passengers, numbering two hundred and fifty, but forty-three were saved.

Dispatches from San Lake indicate a serious scene in the Oregon Canebrake. Senhouse, editor of the Salt Lake Telegraph, and for many years Brigham Young's most staunch supporter, heads the defection. His daughter is one of Brigham Young's son Joseph's wives.

LATER.—Details of the loss of the steamer Stonewall, state that the vessel left St. Louis on Tuesday evening for New Orleans, heavily laden with passengers, horses, mules, hay and other freight. She was burned to the water's edge. Effort was made to land, but the boat was so heavily laden that she could not reach nearer than 100 yards of the shore.

Great confusion and terror prevailed. About 250 persons and their property were aboard, a large number being women and children. The flames spread rapidly, and scores of men jumped into the water and attempted to swim ashore, but were nearly all lost.

The pilot, engineer, carpenter and 41 passengers are known to have been saved. Capt. Clark and other officers and many passengers were lost. All the books and papers of the boat were lost, as were all the cattle and freight. Many persons after reaching shore, from exposure, and all the women and children were lost and nearly if not all having been to death.

The conduct of the passengers, and officers is said to have been heroic. Such an appalling scene has never been witnessed on the Mississippi for many years. The saved were kindly cared for by the officers of the Belle Memphis, and were carried to St. Louis.

Jacksonville, with the Assistant Engineer Stonewall, gave the following: The steamer was given at 6:30 and in ten minutes the boat was in a sheet of flame, and every person had deserted her. All that were lost were drowned and none were burned of 11 women on board, but 4 were saved. But one woman was seen and that was taken possession of by some dock passengers. The last seen of Capt. Scott, he was floating down stream on a log.

The people at Natchez, saw the light and hastened to assist. One man rescued 16 persons with a skill, and had it not been for this help all would have been lost.

A gentleman from Paducah, Ky., came ashore with a lady, and at her entreaty returned to save her child. In swimming where he was grasped by a drowning man and was compelled to shake him off. One man was taken from the wreck so badly burned that he died on reaching the shore.

Captain Dandy, of Shilohport, La., was saved. There were seven men passengers and crew. All the bodies on board were lost but one. Fishers on the pilot, and the carpenter were saved. Another statement is that the fire originated from a candle which the dock passengers had near some hay while playing cards. The steamer was run on gravel bar, the pilot supposing that the passengers could walk ashore on the bar, but at the end runs a stretch and there the large number were drowned. Out of 250 passengers and crew, only 30 are known to be saved.

FROM VIRGINIA.

Richmond, Oct. 20.—The foundry and machine shops of Talbot Box, on seveneenth street, were destroyed by fire to night. The loss on the building, machinery and patterns makes a total of one hundred and sixty five thousand dollars, upon which there were no insurances. The fire originated from the boiler after the workmen had left the establishment about 8 o'clock.

FROM LANCHESTER.

Lancashire, Oct. 20.—Miss Baylor, aged 21 years, was found on Thursday near Sharon, in Blount county, with her throat cut. The murder is unknown. A negro nurse of Henry Crenshaw, in Bedford county, threw his child into the fire yesterday, where it burned to death. She was arrested.

Ford's tobacco factory has been seized by direct orders from Washington for alleged revenue fraud by means of counterfeit stamps.

FROM MONTGOMERY.

Montgomery, Nov. 2.—A destructive fire occurred in the city of Greenville, on the Montgomery and Mobile railroad, totally destroying seventeen business houses. Total loss more than one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Cause of fire not ascertained.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 2.—A report from a republican source says the city has gone forty thousand majority for the democratic ticket.

Reports from heavy republican counties show a falling off of minorities, on account of a comparatively light vote.

LATER.

The city of New York goes forty-five thousand for the democracy.

Kings county gives the democratic ticket ten thousand majority.

Returns from the interior show heavy democratic gains, indicating that the State has gone democratic by from ten to twenty thousand.

FROM BALTIMORE.

Baltimore, Nov. 2.—Every precinct democratic. Vote light. Majority in the city fully nine thousand.

FROM PORT JERVIS.

Port Jervis, Nov. 3.—Six cars loaded with cotton and tobacco burned. One man was roasted.

FROM NEW JERSEY.

Trenton, Nov. 4.—The following is the result of yesterday's election: Senate—democrats 13; republicans 8. House—democrats 33; republicans 4. Democratic gain of 4 on joint ballot.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 4.—Later returns indicate a democratic majority of 7,000 to 10,000. Senate—democrats 17, republicans 15; democrats gain 2. The House is very close, present estimate showing 60 republicans and 62 democrats, with several districts doubtful.

Correspondence of the Baltimore Gazette.]
Frauds on the Revenue—The Re-Use of Internal Revenue Stamps—A Loss to the Government of Ten Millions per Annum.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20, 1869.

More frauds on the revenue have been discovered, involving a loss to the Government, as is said, to the amount of $10,000,000 per annum. The following particulars are given by a gentleman well informed in revenue matters:

"Commissioner Delano has discovered the wonderful appreciated between the receipts of the two Governments on the item of stamps, and for several months his attention has been directed to obtaining a successful solution of the question."

It has long been demonstrated that the frauds perpetrated through the re-use of stamps has been an enormous check to the equitable collection of the revenue. The counterfeiting of them amounts to nothing in comparison with their rendition by chemical washing processes to a condition as good as new, even after they have been used and canceled as the law directs, by pen and subscription on their face. The records of the United States courts show unmistakably that the ingenious and scientific minds, embraced among those who are naturally violators of law, are engaged in the washing of revenue stamps. It has been clearly demonstrated that men in different localities follow the business methodically, and employ large numbers of persons in the collection of stamps that have been once used, which, when submitted to a chemical process of cleansing become as perfect as the original stamp.

"There can be no question but that the re-use of revenue stamps in this country is the principal reason why the Government has failed to derive a revenue from stamps of $63, 225,790 02, while for the same fiscal year the United States derived from the same source but $14,852, 225 02."

"Commissioner Delano appreciates, and has depreciated, this state of fraud for some time. Various plans have been suggested to secure equity in this important matter of revenue. The law provides that every person shall cancel the stamp used, by writing the date of its use and his initials across the face. This may be universally complied with and the frauds still continue, for the fraud on stamps arises from the fact that all over the country persons are engaged in gathering the once used stamp, cleaning it by a chemical process, and selling it for re-use, as good as new. It is estimated that the revenue of the country suffers to the extent of at least ten million dollars per annum from this. When, therefore, we say we can realize at least twenty-five million dollars per annum from stamps, it is because we know Commissioner Delano has the subject under consideration, and proposes, by the authority given to him by Congress, to adopt such regulations as shall prevent the continuance of these frauds."

A committee of experts, appointed to examine the suggestions and inventions submitted for the purpose of securing a uniform cancellation of revenue stamps, will soon report.

THE WACO TRAGEDY.—The Examiner has the following somewhat different version of this affair from that given in its extra, published in the Picayune:

Thomas and Henry Grimes visited Waco, on the 17th, for the purpose of purchasing a suit of clothes for one of them, who was preparing for his wedding. Both had recently returned from the North, where they had been with a drove of beavers, and seemed to have plenty of money. In the experience of their birth and gayety, natural to the hour and circumstances, they imbibed too much liquor, and became somewhat boisterous, but they were finally persuaded to leave town. They rode off quietly, but a short distance from town one of them fell off his horse.

Conyers, a Federal soldier, and acting as one of the city police, then procured a horse and followed them, but the poor drunken boys refuse to be arrested, when Conyers returns for reinforcements. The young men—the one who had fallen having remounted his horse—ride in furious but drunken haste, until they reach the residence of Col. George Burney, about one mile from the city, where one of them again falls from his horse, and is so drunk that he can scarcely remount him; detained here by this accident they are overtaken by Conyers and his reinforcements of Federal cavalry. The battle commences; the fire is almost simultaneous, and according to the version of this horrible affair, Conyers is shot in the hand. The Federal soldiers having discharged their pieces, halted to reload, and the two brothers, one with a wounded horse, rode on past Mr. John Burney's house, until they are hid by the brow of the hill, just beyond his house, when the soldiers came dashing on in hot haste after the flying brothers, and as soon as they reached the top of the hill and discovered the fugitives, they fired upon them and certain firing and the unfortunate brothers are dead and riddled with balls. Such is the latest account of this awful tragedy, that has changed in a few hours bridal robes into funeral garments.

A Bloody Wedding.

We learn that while a party was assembled at the residence of Mr. Hargrave, in Rock's prairie, Grimes county, Thursday night, to attend the marriage of Mr. H's daughter, and a few minutes after the ceremony had been performed, a company of soldiers, in pursuit of some one supposed to be there, surrounded the house and demanded its surrender. Mr. Hargrave offered to surrender the house and every one in it, and went out to the captain of the squad. The report to us is that while Mr. H. was out, a pistol in the hands of a young man went off accidentally.

The soldiers in front of the house immediately opened fire. A Miss Russell had just stepped upon the gallery to get a drink, when she was hit in the head with a minute ball, and in the leg with a buckshot, and instantly killed. A Mr. Fowler was also killed. Both Pearce and Mrs. Autery were wounded. With the first shot, the gentlemen in the house started every one to the door flat down upon the floor. But for this, our informant thought, many more lives would have been lost. The groom and several others were arrested and carried off.

Houston Telegraph, 24th.

The Griffin (Ga.) Star says:—
"Mr. Dismuke, our Ordinary, assisted Mr. S. W. Bloodworth yesterday in measuring the corn that grew on his prairie, and it amounted to one hundred and thirty-seven and one-seventh bushels. Mr. Dismuke will make oath to the correctness of this statement."

Negro Mob.

The following from the Hayneville Examiner shows a rather bad state of affairs in our neighboring county of Lowndes. A gentleman and a negro became involved in an excited controversy at Benton Saturday. Words ran high and knives were drawn by both. The white man went off to a friend and secured firearms, while the negro, advised by his friends, left the place. The white man followed him a mile or so from town and secured a gang of negroes found the fugitive, mounted standing in the highway near Mrs. Dulaney's with the saddle on. They concluded that the fellow had been put to death—a suspicion that gained ground when he failed to return to his home near Goodsville that night. Rumors were sent out to gather the "dems" and a rendezvous was designated. Some of the negroes advised against all such proceedings, and the result was that only three or four—armed and equipped with deadly weapons—started for Benton the next morning. When asked where they were going, one of them replied, that they were "going to hunt Jo." He was asked if it took guns and pistols to hunt a dead negro. On they marched to Benton. But the pursuing negro was not in the road. Jo had seen his pursuer, and, abandoning his title, had taken to the woods. If the mob of negroes had not met him it is quite certain that they would have proceeded in the attempt to avenge him.

If Jo had been a little later on his homeward tramp, or had taken a different route home, these three or four might have involved an entire community in a game in which bullets would have been the dice and life the stake. It is high time that negroes were made to understand that they are not to take the law into their own hands. In north Lowndes McKibben taught them that it was the right way; out in west Lowndes there is a class of men who would have turned over a new chapter to them if they had attempted to do violence in this instance. The laws of the State are laid enough, without the interference of a brutal mob to execute them.

The Southern Pacific Railroad.

We are truly glad to learn from the following Washington correspondence of the Charleston Courier, that the prospects of the Southern Pacific railroad are so bright. The Courier's correspondent writes from Washington under date of the 17th inst., and says:

The South is to have a Pacific Railroad, with eastern connection at Charleston and Norfolk. Unlike the Northern Pacific roads, it is to be built without one dollar of financial subsidy from the United States, and possibly, without even soliciting an acre of the public lands. The Congress can certainly do nothing less than to grant the right of way through the public domain and furnish the company with a charter restrictive in its character to the stock and bondholders of the road. The Southern road will not be a lobby scheme, and will have no conflicts in Congress against the cohesive power of public plunder. It is to be the work of the capitalists, unaided by Congress, and in the hands of men in this country and in Europe who will furnish the sinews of the road. Yesterday your correspondent was informed of all the details of the great improvement.

Suffice that it is said that it is the intention of certain New York capitalists to place, this coming winter or next spring, a loan on the market for sixty millions of dollars in a coin or currency six per cent. bond, secured by a first mortgage on the road. Assurance has been received that more than half the amount will be taken in Europe. The road is to have three eastern connections—the first with the Kansas Pacific Railroad at Sheridan and thence east to St. Louis; the second with Memphis via Little Rock, and then with two termini on the Atlantic seaboard—at Charleston and Norfolk. The latter will be reached by modification of existing railroad lines running east and southward from the Mississippi river. Not only have the projects of this line all the confidence needed from Eastern capitalists, but some of the wealthiest men in California are just as earnest for the Southern road, and will come forward, as they used to say in war times, with men and means to build it. The coming winter, it is believed, will look with favor on the project of building this great enterprise, and demonstrate most conclusively the necessity of a great internal continental line south of the snow belt. The contractor who laid every foot of iron from Omaha to Promontory, a distance of eleven hundred miles, is now being sought for the Southern road can be easily built and put in running order in four years, and is willing to risk the prophecy that the cars would go over that line on the first of January, 1875.

The Grave of Beauty.

Among the countless throngs who daily pass and repass Trinity Church, many know that within a few feet of the crowded thoroughfare of Broadway is a grave which covers all that remains of a once beautiful and fascinating woman, the record of whose sorrows has dimmed the eyes of thousands? No date of birth, no indication of family, and no date of death, appear on the stone that covers the grave of Charlotte Temple, whose tragic story, once upon a time, was read by every school child, and says that the Southern road can be easily built and put in running order in four years, and is willing to risk the prophecy that the cars would go over that line on the first of January, 1875.

She, like a true daughter and a true woman, returned to New York—in it is claimed—she attracted the attention of a young officer, a member of one of England's oldest, proudest families, who with his regiment entered the city when the British occupied New York after the battle of Long Island. Charlotte, then only seventeen, was so captivated and won by a dashingly young officer. He deserted her, and then—the old story—she soon after died of a broken heart. A little daughter which she left was tenderly cared for, at a proper age was taken to England, and a fortune of one hundred thousand dollars settled upon her by the head of her father's family, the late Sir John Derry, grandfather of the present Lord Stanley. There it may be seen, within a few feet of Broadway, by any one who will take the trouble to look through the iron railing. The last time we glanced at the slab, now almost imbedded in the ground, we saw several sparrows taking a bath in the water which had collected in the excavation from which the villagers recovered the plate; and other little feathered songsters were singing a requiem over her grave—near which we were gratified to observe a "forget-me-not," doubtless planted there by some kind hearted boy, in childhood, had wept over the sad and romantic story of the blue eyed girl.—Appleton's Journal.

The house is new, contains 5 rooms, convenient out houses, a good well in the yard, fruit trees, &c. For further information enquire at this office.

We owe an apology to our readers this week. In consequence of a press of work in printing Blanks, Association Minutes, &c., we have been unable to devote proper attention to the editorial department. The length of the County Treasurer's Report also excludes our usual variety. We promise our readers however, in return for their kind indulgence, a decided improvement in the future, with several additional columns of reading matter.

STAGE ACCIDENT.—We regret to have to state, that on Saturday last, while the Stage was passing from this place to Gadsden, about five miles west, while descending a hill, the brake gave way, and precipitated the driver, Mr. Rice, to the ground in front, breaking his jaw and dislocating his shoulder; which, in the opinion of his physician disable him for some weeks. Dr. Halls, who was also on the driver's seat, was thrown off and slightly injured. The horses ran about one mile and stopped without further injury.

The sale of Land by J. S. Wakefield, Adm'r, takes place on Thursday 18th inst. instead of Saturday, as heretofore published. The date of the month was right, but of the week wrong.

We are pleased to learn by a private letter, that the excellent and justly popular Grocery firm of Pitzer & Smith, Rome, Ga. have just received one of the largest stock of Groceries ever brought to that city, to which they have added Liquors of all grades, guaranteed to be pure and above proof, offered low at wholesale.

THE ROME FAIR.—By the Rome papers, as well as private sources, we learn that the late Rome Fair was a perfect success. The stock is now 75 per cent above par. The surplus money on hand will probably be expended in the purchase of suitable Fair Grounds.

A very large number of premiums and diplomas were awarded, among which we are pleased to notice, the Germania Tanning Co., located two miles north of this place took the following:
Germania Tanning Co., side kip leather diploma.
Germania Tanning Co., side upper leather, sugar spoon, two dollars.
Germania Tanning Co., side leather, sugar tongs, two dollars.
Germania Tanning Co., side sole leather, knife knife, two dollars.

SINGULAR COTTON BOLL.—Mr. B. Denman has left at our office a cotton boll which has 12 department of the hull around the cotton, usually we believe only four.

We are requested to state that in consequence of Judge D. Arman being summoned to attend the District Court at Huntsville, his court will not be held next Monday, but adjourned to 3rd Monday in December.

The attention of those wanting to buy Personal property, such as horses, cattle, house hold and kitchen furniture, is invited to the advertisement of Joseph Smith, Esq.

Our College.

By reference to the notice of the Secretary, it will be seen that the Trustees of "Calhoun College have made a call upon the Stockholders and all others interested in the subject of Education and the general prosperity of the Town and county to assemble at the Court House on the 20th inst.

This movement means "business" and we trust the day is not far distant when we can point with pride to "Our College" Buildings, filled with a corps of competent Teachers and scores of pupils from this and other counties.

Let every one attend, old and young—male and female. We hope that the Trustees will secure the services of some of our accomplished public lecturers to infuse into the minds and hearts of our people a greater zeal and interest in the cause to be promoted by the great Enterprise which we trust may be regarded now as an accomplished fact.

A Truly Valuable Remedy.—Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, Rheumatism, Sick or Nervous Headache, Sore Throat or Swelling of any kind, and other diseases. This medicine has been used by a number of persons in this place, and found to be no humbug, but an effectual remedy. A few bottles may be obtained of E. Goode.

Encourage Home Manufactures and Industry.—The energetic and enterprising firm of John Miller & Co. have erected an Iron Foundry in our place, and are now prepared to execute and fill all orders for articles in their line.

This establishment will be a great advantage and convenience to this section of country, and we hope that all persons, especially Mill owners, Mechanics, Manufacturers and users of Agricultural implements, will extend to them a liberal patronage, so as to enable them to enlarge their establishment at an early day.

In Memoriam.

The subject of this notice, Richard A. Ingram, was born in Putnam Co. Georgia, March 17th 1809, was married to Sarah B. McLendon Feb. 10th 1840—joined the Baptist Church in 1842, soon after his removal to Alabama; was ordained a Deacon of Oak Bowery congregation in 1863.

Died suddenly from disease of the heart, Sept. 18th 1869.

A good man has gone to his reward; far "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the Spirit that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them;" this is emphatically true of Richard A. Ingram: He died in the Lord; more, he lived in the Lord. His influence his thoughts, his daily walk, all tended to the building up of the church and of the community of which he was a member.

In all the relations of life, as husband, father, citizen, neighbor, friend and Christian, he was a true and true man. His heart and his door were always open to the poor and the afflicted, and to the cause of Christ in all its varied calls.

Liberality in his views and generous in his purposes, he was always actively engaged in promoting the welfare, spiritually, intellectually and socially of the community in which he lived. Eulogy of the dead is often extravagant, but of this man we cannot say too much; who were his neighbors and daily companions mourn his loss; and in view of that great loss to the church, to the family, to the community, we are sometimes tempted to say as did the patriarch Jacob: "all these things are against me," but turning to that word which was ever to Richard Ingram and ever guiding, the man of his counsel, we are comforted with that gracious declaration "all things work together for good to them that love God."

We would say to the sorrowing church of which he was truly a shining light, draw nigh to God in most fervent prayer that He will raise up from among you another such Deacon, "a man full of the Holy Ghost." To the community: Emulate his virtues, vice he had none, and foster those institutions and plans for the public good which he so cherished and so labored for while he dwelt among you.

To the bereaved and mourning family: submit to the will of God; preserve untarnished the fair name of your good husband and father; trust in Him who hath declared himself the husband of the widow and the father of the fatherless.

So live as to look forward in hope and faith to that time when the precious things of this Earth shall be gathered together. Look up, and be cheered, "for, if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so they also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him."

A FRIEND.

DR. JOHN BULL'S
Great Remedies.DR. JOHN BULL,
MANUFACTURER AND VENDOR OF THE Celebrated
Smith's Tonic Syrup!FOR THE CURE OF
AGUE AND FEVER, OR CHILLS AND FEVER.

THE proprietor of this celebrated medicine justly claims for its superiority over all remedies ever offered to the public for the safe, certain, speedy and permanent cure of Ague and Fever, or Chills and Fever, whether of short or long standing. He has resided in the Western and Southern country to learn his testimony to the truth of the assertion that in no case whatever will it fail to cure. If the directions are strictly followed and carried out. In a great many cases a single dose has been sufficient for a cure, and whole families have been cured by a single bottle, with a perfect restoration of the general health. It is however prudent, and in every case more certain to cure if its use is continued in smaller doses for a week or two after the disease has been checked, more especially in difficult and long-standing cases. Usually, this medicine will not require any aid to keep the bowels in good order; should the patient however, require a cathartic medicine, after having taken three or four doses of the Tonic, a single dose of Bull's Vegetable Family Pills will be sufficient.

LOUISVILLE, KY.

BULL'S
WORM DESTROYER,
To my United States and World-Wide Readers.

I HAVE received many testimonials from professional and medical men, and my numerous publications have shown, all of which are genuine. The following from a highly educated and popular physician in Georgia, is certainly one of the most sensible communications I have ever received. Dr. Clement knows exactly what he speaks of, and his testimony is deserving to be written in letters of gold. Hear what the Doctor says of Bull's Worm Destroyer:

VILLASNO, WALKER COUNTY, GA.
June 29, 1890

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: I have recently given your "Worm Destroyer" several trials, and find it wonderful efficacious. It has not failed in a single instance to have the wished for effect. I am doing a pretty large country practice, and have daily use for some article of the kind. I am free to confess that I know of no remedy recommended by the ablest authorities that is so certain and speed in its action. On the contrary they are uncertain in the extreme. My object in writing you, is to find out upon what terms I can get the medicine directly from you. If I can get it upon easy terms, I shall use a great deal of it. I am aware that the use of such articles is contrary to the teachings and practice of a great majority of the regular line of M. D.'s, but I cannot justly excuse or good sense in discarding a remedy which we know to be efficient, simply because we may be ignorant of its combination. For my part, I shall make it a rule to use all and any means to relieve suffering humanity which I may be able to command—without hesitating because some more ingenious than myself may have learned its effects first, and secured the sole right to its use. I am an advocate of the use of all means to relieve suffering humanity, and am by no means an advocate of the use of the thousands of worthless nostrums that flood the country, that purport to cure all manner of disease to which human flesh is heir. Please reply soon, and inform me of your best terms.

I am, sir, most respectfully,
JULIUS P. CLEMENT, M. D.

BULL'S SARSAPARILLA.
A Good Reason for the Captain's Faith.Read the Captain's Letter and the Letters from his mother:

Benton Barracks, Mo., April 30, 1890.

DEAR SIR:—I am writing you to let you know the efficacy of your Sarsaparilla, and the healing and beneficial qualities it possesses. I send you the following statement of my case.

I was wounded about two years ago—was taken prisoner and confined for six months. Being moved so often, my wounds have not healed. I have not set up a moment since I was wounded. I am shot through the hips. My general health is impaired and I need something to assist nature. I have more faith in your Sarsaparilla than in any thing else. I wish that that is genuine. Please express me half a dozen bottles, and oblige.

CARR. C. P. JOHNSON,
St. Louis, Mo.

P. S.—The following was written April 30, 1890, by Mrs. Jennie Johnson, mother of Capt. Johnson.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: My husband Dr. C. P. Johnson was a skillful surgeon and physician in central New York, where he died leaving the above C. P. Johnson to my care. At thirteen years of age he had a chronic diarrhea and scrofula, for which I gave him your Sarsaparilla. I cured him. I have for ten years recommended it to many in New York, Ohio and Iowa, for scrofula, liver and general debility. Perfect success has attended it. The cures effected in some cases of scrofula and liver aches were almost miraculous. I am very anxious for my son to again have recourse to your Sarsaparilla. He is fearful of getting a scrofula again. His wounds were terrible, but I believe he will recover.

Respectfully,
GENNIE JOHNSON.

BULL'S
CEDRON BITTERS.

Arkansas heard from.

Testimony of Medical Men.

Stone Point, White Co., Ark., May 23, 1890.

DR. JOHN BULL—Dear Sir: Last February I was in Louisville purchasing drugs, and got some of your Sarsaparilla and Cedron Bitters. My son-in-law, who was with me in the store has been down with rheumatism for some time, commenced on the Bitters, and soon found his general health improved.

Dr. Gist, who has been in bad health, tried them, and also improved.

Dr. Coffee, who has been in bad health for several years—stomach and liver affected—has improved very much by the use of your Bitters. Indeed the Cedron Bitters has given you great popularity in this settlement. I think I could sell a great quantity of your medicines here. I especially your Cedron Bitters and Sarsaparilla. Ship me via Memphis, care of Rickert & Neely.

Respectfully,
C. B. WALKER.

WHEREAS, by an act of the General Assembly of the State of Alabama, approved the 10th day of October, 1888, it is provided as follows: to-wit: "It shall be the duty of the Probate Judge of each county in this State to designate a newspaper in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications, of any and every character required by law to be made in his County, shall be published; which paper so designated shall be the official organ in and for said county." And in obedience to the requirements of said act, J. as Judge of Probate for Calhoun County, Alabama, did heretofore designate the "St. Clair County Eagle," as the official organ and for said County of Calhoun, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun should be published, said designation to remain until recalled or changed by me.

And the "Jacksonville Republican" being a County paper, published in the Town of Jacksonville, Alabama, and in my opinion, clearly of lawful publication, I do hereby designate the "St. Clair County Eagle," as the official organ for said County of Calhoun, and designate the said Jacksonville Republican as the official organ hereafter, in which all legal advertisements, notices or publications of any and every character required by law to be made in and for said County of Calhoun shall be published. This designation to remain so long as in my opinion, the Editor of said Jacksonville Republican consents said paper so as to be within the provisions of said act.

Dr. Prophitt—Having used this medicine sufficiently long to test its virtue, and to satisfy my own mind that it is an excellent remedy for dyspepsia, indigestion, and biliousness, I have suffered much for six years, and being persuaded that hundreds of others who now suffer from this annoying complaint would be signally benefited, as he has been, unfortunate class to recommend it to them.As he has no money, and has given not only

Mr. Peabody was strongly opposed to fraud in little matters. The conductor on an English railway once overcharged him a shilling for fare. He made complaint to the Directors and had the man charged. "Not," said he, "that I could not afford to pay the shilling, but the man was cheating many travelers to whom the shilling would be oppressive. When Mr. Peabody first resided in London he lived very frugally, taking breakfast in his lodgings and dining at a club-house. His personal expenses for ten years did not average six hundred pounds per annum.

Guard Against Vulgar Language.

There is as much connection between the words and the thoughts as there is between the thoughts and actions. The latter is only the expression of the former, but they have a power to react upon the soul and leave the stain of corruption there. A young man who allows himself to use vulgar or profane words is not only showing that there is a foul spot upon the mind, but by the appearance of that word he extends that spot and influences it by indulgence, it will pollute and ruin the soul. Be as careful of your words as four thoughts.

If you control the tongue so that no improper words are pronounced by it, you will soon be able to control the mind, and save it from corruption. You extinguish the fire by smothering it or by preventing bad thoughts burning into language. Never utter a word anywhere which you are ashamed to speak in the presence of the most refined female. Try this a little while and you will soon have command of yourself.

Opelika and Oxford.

We learn that the work on the Opelika and Oxford railroad has commenced, starting at a point about two miles from Opelika. They have secured about eleven miles of old grading, and expect in a very short time to have twenty miles ready for the iron. Mr. Stanton, of Boston, who is the President of the Alabama and Chattahoochee Railroad, and a large capitalist, is one of the leading movers in this Opelika and Oxford road. This company will, we understand, make an effort to secure the old grading done between Jacksonville and Gadsden; and, if successful, will run their road so as to connect with that, and with Mr. Stanton's other road, at a point about eight miles from Gadsden.

The Lifer.—Here is an accurate description of a class of men who infest every community. The most miserable, hopeless scrap of humanity is an idle man—a man whose chief aim of life is to loaf—to waste in the listless inaction the years of this short life. There are scores of such beings in every town and city—miserable loafers whose sole occupation is to avoid employment of any kind—whose lives can scarcely be called lives—who die one after another and leave behind them—what? A vacancy to be mourned? No, for they are in themselves vacancies; not men. To those atoms society owes nothing. The history of the world's progress, and the progress of the human race, is being dead, the grave contains no more, worthless earth than it did before. They become chronic nuisances as regards their worth or value, and from day to day in the haunts of busy men, they pass as unimportant things—so much discount that they can not even buy themselves. Such are loafers—miserable, worthless beings, who die only when they get too lazy and indolent to use their organs.

BURNING OF THE SUGAR CROP.—The burning of the sugar crop in Cuba, as proposed by Céspedes, in order to keep the Spaniards from using it, will cost the United States, according to the Cuban estimates, from 50,000,000 to 60,000,000 in custom and revenue income from commercial transaction.

"I never go to church," said one. "I spend Sunday in setting accounts."

"The day of judgment will be spent in the same way," was the reply.

When a maiden gets married she ends a miss spent life.

The Tennessee Legislature has repealed the law which gave to the marginal papers of that State, all the legal advertising and printing.

Jacksonville, Gadsden & Gunterville Railroad.—We learn that $180,000 have been subscribed to the above road, and a Board of Directors will be elected on the 15th inst. The Company has settled all the preliminaries to procure a charter from the Legislature, and proposes to begin construction as soon thereafter as possible. We hope that our people on the North side of the Tennessee will lose no time in making a railroad connection between Gunterville, Huntsville, New Market, and such points in Middle Tennessee, as will ensure the direct line from Louisville and Cincinnati to the Atlantic seaboard. It is all important to the interests of Huntsville to secure this line. The connection once lost, and opportunity will, we fear, be irrevocably gone.—Huntsville Democrat.

FATES OF THE APOSTLES.—Matthew is supposed to have suffered martyrdom, or was slain in the city of Ethiopia. Mark was dragged through the streets of Alexandria, in Egypt till he expired. Luke was hanged to an olive tree in Greece. John was put in a cauldron at Rome, but escaped death. He died a natural death at Ephesus, Asia.

James, the Great, was beheaded at Jerusalem. James, the Less, was thrown from a pinnacle and beaten to death. Philip was beheaded. Bartholomew was skinned alive. Andrew was crucified and pounded while dying.

Thomas was run through with a lance. Simon was crucified. Matthias was stoned to death. Barnabas was stoned to death. Paul was beheaded by the tyrant Nero at Rome.

Receipt for a Happy Home.—Six things, says Hamilton, are requisite to create a happy home. Integrity must be the architect, and tidiness the upholsterer. It must be warmed by affection, and lighted up with cheerfulness; and industry must be the ventilator, renewing the atmosphere and bringing in fresh salubrity every day; while over all, a protecting canopy of glory, and nothing will suffice except the blessing of God.

A Good Name.

Before all things, and beyond all price, is a good name. Eminent wisdom has declared that it is "rather to be chosen than great riches."

It stands for, and is the label of a man's character. The name one bears, or the accredited reputation, represents his manly worth, his solidity, his virtues and honor.

No power can bring back the fragrance of a good name once blasted. No tongue can declare its value, no mind can conceive the vacuum made by its loss. With it, poverty becomes a handicap; without it, wealth is a disgrace.

With it, the humblest relations of life are blessed and ennobled; without it, the highest titles, the most honorable positions are marks of humiliation and insignia of worthlessness.

A good name is the blossom and fruit of goodness. It is not a mark bestowed on character by some outside hand, but the proper development of the inner man—the shining light which a pure and good soul puts in sight from within.

A good name is a result. A result of self-knowledge, self-appreciation, self-application and self-development. It is not a man's gift, but the infallible sign of a man's estimate of himself. It abides.—It is of the eternal. It has for its own the present, while it belongs to and contains the future.

A STRANGESTORY.

Fire Seen Near Solomon's Temple.—Warriors of the Coming of the Messiah.

Our friends of the Hebrew faith will doubtless feel much interested in knowing of certain strange developments which, according to the Austrian newspapers, have manifested themselves in Jerusalem. These developments refer to the coming year of the Jewish Messiah. The story, as told, is singular enough. It appears that the rabbi of Parka, a town in Hungary has received letters from Jerusalem which state that toward the end of last month a column of fire was seen near the ruins of Solomon's Temple, and that ed itself to an Israelite who was worshipping there at the time. This voice warned the devotee of the coming, this year, of the Messiah, and declared that the Israelites should repent, and be more observant of the religion of their fathers. The man so addressed spoke prophetically of what he had heard. Thereupon the people treated him as an impostor, and some even went so far as to attempt to take his life; but he, as miraculously endowed with more than human strength, fought hundreds of his assailants, and when, afterward, a battalion of soldiers was sent to arrest him, baffled them in their efforts to capture him. Two Israelites, the Hungarian journals say, have been dispatched to Jerusalem to learn the exact facts of this extraordinary affair. It is clear that, if not one of the race of prophets, the man who, as above narrated, opposed this host of enemies, must be an athlete of no small pretensions.

HIGHEST HONORS
At Industrial Exhibitions in this Country,
So that their work is the acknowledged standard of excellence in its department, respectively announces that with extended and perfect facilities, they are now producing yet more perfect organs than ever before, in great variety as to style and price, adapted to all parties, as organs for drawing rooms, Libraries, Music Rooms, Concert Halls, Lodges, Churches, Schools, &c. in plain and elegant cases, all of which they are enabled by their unparalleled facilities for manufacture to sell at prices of inferior work.
The recent improvements in these Organs have so increased their usefulness and popularity that they are unquestionably the most desirable instruments obtainable for family use, as well as Churches, Schools, &c. while the prices at which they can be offered ($50 to $100 each) adapt them to the means and requirements of all classes. They are equally adapted to secular and sacred music, are elegant in appearance, occupy little space, are not liable to get out of order, (not requiring tuning once where a pianoforte is tuned twenty times), are very durable, and easy to play upon.
The M. & H. Organ Co. are now selling FORTY-SEVEN ORGAN SETS, with two sets of VIBRATORS for $125, and other styles at proportionate rates.
For testimony to the superiority of their Organs, the Mason & Hamlin Organ Co. respectfully refer to the musical profession generally; a majority of the most prominent musicians in the country, with many of eminence in Europe, having given public testimony that the Mason & Hamlin Organs excel all other containing this testimony in full will be sent free to any one desiring it, also a descriptive circular, containing full particulars respecting these instruments, with correct drawings of the different styles and the lowest prices, which are fixed and variable.
